

Woodie Templeton

October 15, 1940 - November 5, 2015

Local businessman, Woodie Templeton, age 75 passed this life on November 5, 2015 at the Life Care Center of Tullahoma. Memorial services are scheduled for Saturday, November 14 at 2 PM at Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home. Visitation with the family will be from 12 PM until service time.

A native of Atlanta, GA, he was the son of the late Buck and Kathleen Templeton. He was a 1958 graduate of Tullahoma High School and graduated from MTSU with a degree in Industrial Technology. After graduation he worked as an HVAC designer for the Thermal Transfer Plant in Nashville and as HVAC project manager for Hickory Hollow Mall. In 1979, he and his family returned to Tullahoma to manage the family business, Tullahoma Floor Covering & Supply, Inc. He was an avid NASCAR and University of Tennessee Football fan. He also loved spending time with his grandchildren and was very proud of them. He also enjoyed restoring and working on antique cars. His favorite hobby was remodeling tour buses for music stars. In addition to her parents, he was preceded in death by one sister, Faye Templeton Colyar.

Woodie is survived by his wife of 46 years, Barbara Guinn Templeton of Tullahoma; two sons, Jackson Craig Templeton of Tullahoma and Jason Woodrow Templeton and his wife, Leslie of Tullahoma and three grandchildren, Jackson Alexander Templeton, Carson Woodrow Templeton and Lydia Allison Templeton.

“ Jason, Craig and Barbara,

I thought the world of your dad/husband. He was always one of my favorite subs for 30 years (even if we didn't agree on Earnhardt - at least we did on UT). My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of sorrow.
